FEBRUARY QUOTE:

FEBRUARY TREE

Cold winter winds that batter the arms
Of a tree - helplessly naked and bare -
Relentless and evil, without any qualms,
Drown it in sadness, engulf in despair;

The tree empty-handed, dreary and cold,
Stands firm in an unyielding battle of wills,
His movements grow stronger, daring and bold,
Lashing the wind, despite painful chills;

With frost-bitten fingers, hungry and vexed,
He must persevere in this daring torment;
His arms are outstretched, all muscles flexed,
He's furious, determined, proud and unbent;

Though, he doesn't know what tomorrow will bring,
The fight will go on, while the days grow longer;
He knows that, as ever, perseverance is king,
For what cannot kill him, will make him stronger.
